DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 8 is objected to because of the following informalities: The phrase "pet's lover's" should be deleted. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Darrow (US Patent 2,026,082) in view of Norris (US Patent 4,162,073).

Darrow teaches most of the elements of the disclosed invention, including a playing board (fig.1), pictorial representations (fig.1), marked action spaces and event spaces (fig.1), random movements means (fig.5), a set of operation papers (fig.8), a set of event cards (fig. 6), a plurality of different icon pieces (fig.2), play money (fig.11) and rules (co.. 8, par. 1). However, Darrow fails to teach historical markings of Egyptian symbols and structures. Norris teaches in the figures a board game having a plurality of objects, a plurality of monetary reward indicators and a pyramidal random choice means. The indicia on the board relates to the temple position and gold that can be collected by the player. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill at the time the invention was made to incorporate historical markings of Egyptian symbols an structures as taught by Norris for the board game of Darrow for the purpose of providing an amusement game which utilizes such alleged inherent pyramid powers.
